

An Ode We Owe

Stanza 1:

- How can one be expected to do good while all this bad is happening around them. People go through so much but are unable to realize that everyone shares earth

Stanza 2:

- Equality is not to be the same, but it's too aim to do good as you can towards the benefit of the world
- though poverty is a poor existence,
- Complicity is a poorer excuse.
- People believe that power and poverty is a necessity to make advancements
- People need to do whatever it takes to preserve the planet

Stanza 3:

- It really is not that hard to preserve earth but the consequences are severe if not preserved
- There is only 1 earth, we can either come together and conquer the future, or divide and conquer the people.
- "As we have humanity, We will forever have hope."

Stanza 4:

- The goal is not to be the generation that only tries, but is the type that leads to a society where people are driven by human conviction and creates a legacy
- This change is hard but with hope, we are brave enough to conquer it

Stanza 5:

- We owe it to each other to protect every part of the planet
- People should respect everybody no matter what race or gender they are.
- Humans are one species

Stanza 6:

- Everyone should live life as full as they can. So that the world might be great
